South Sea. By SYDNEY MOSTYN, Author of the "Surgeon's Secret," &c. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

The Athenaeum says:—"As a welcome exception to the dreary average of drawing-room complications, 'The Little Loo' deserves readers and purchasers."

The Spectator says:—"We have nothing but praise to give to the story. It is well conceived and powerfully told. Every detail is carefully contrived to give effect to the whole.....This is one of the novels which cannot be criticised in detail without a damaging interference with the interest of its plot, and we must therefore ask our readers so far to take our recommendation on trust."

The Scotsman says:—"Mr. Mostyn's story is full of thrilling interest from the first page to the last. It is scintillatingly written."

The Sunday Times says:—"It is difficult in few words to convey the charm that this book possesses; from first to last the interest never flags.....We can heartily recommend Mr. Mostyn's charming book to our readers."

Financial Opinion says:—"Not Marryat, or Dana, or Hermann Melville himself has written any better sea stories than this tale of 'The Little Loo'."

STRENGTH FOR THE WEAK.

THE latest addition to Therapeutics is the discovery of a NEW COMPOUND SALT, having two distinct bases. This valuable aid to medicine, if dissolved in hot water, forms a most invigorating lotion, quickly curing Weaknesses, arising from whatever cause, and drawing out pains and aches, and is known as

LIEBIG'S SILVER SALT.

The feeble and those in delicate health will find this Salt highly invigorating and exhilarating, which all who suffer from Colds and Weaknesses will at once appreciate, as it fortifies any weak part bathed with it, thereby preventing and keeping off Colds, by giving a warm glow of health, and should always be at hand for use in changeable weather, to rub in any part as a protection.

LIEBIG'S PEARLS OF STRENGTH

are perfectly tasteless, being prepared in the form of Pearls, which they resemble in appearance. This elegant medicine is quite different to anything ever brought before the public, containing, in a cheap and pleasant form, a most elaborate preparation, adapted to all ages and constitutions, for and for the permanent cure of

ENRICHING THE BLOOD,

General Weakness, Nervous Prostration, Shortness of Breath, Palpitation of the Heart, Impoverished Blood, Pains in the Back, Noises in the Head and Ears, Bilious and Liver Complaints, Impaired Sight and Memory, Weakness of the Chest, Indigestion, Melancholy, Incapacity for Study or Business, Trembling of the Hands and Limbs, Dizziness, Neuralgia, Rheumatism and Pains and Want of Energy and Loss of Aches, Appetite, and most other symptoms of failing health.

TESTIMONIAL FROM SIR CHARLES LOCOCK,

Physician to the Queen:—

"I have seen the effects of Liebig's Pearls of Strength, and regard them favourably as a general family medicine, pleasant to take, and beneficial in their action. I have also subjected the Silver Salt to some very severe tests, and find that the hot solution draws out pains and aches in a few minutes, and is without doubt the most powerful invigorator known, and these two remedies appear to me to fully bear out all that is claimed for them.

"CHARLES LOCOCK, M.D."

In cases of physical, functional, or organic weakness, the Silver Salt will soon effect a cure, if applied as a lotion to the place, causing the blood to flow there, and the part then becomes strong; and these two remedies comprise the whole of the LIEBIG SYSTEM OF MEDICINE, of supplying the blood with its ferruginous, phosphatic, and saline elements, for curing languor, exhaustion, and early decay, by rendering the blood sufficiently rich to nourish the body, expel all impurities, infuse new life, and build up a stronger constitution, and has so far proved a success that it is rapidly superseding the old system.

These PEARLS are sold in boxes at 1s. 1d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s., 22s., and 33s., and the SILVER SALT is the same price. There is a considerable saving in buying the larger quantities, and they can be forwarded to any part, carriage free, with printed directions for use.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.*THE TIMES.

"The article in the current number of the CHURCH QUARTERLY REVIEW on Mr. Martin's 'Life of the Prince Consort' will attract a degree of public attention to that young competitor for public notice, which the periodical has well deserved for its general merits."—Jan. 1877.

THE GUARDIAN.

"On the whole the first issue of the CHURCH QUARTERLY must be allowed to contain a large quantity of weighty and worthy matter, and one or two papers of unusual interest. It is likely, so far as we can judge by what is before us, to fulfil its duties with ability and energy."—1875.

"The second number of the CHURCH QUARTERLY REVIEW seems to us, on the whole, to surpass the former one in excellence. Its article on 'The Education Controversy' is very statistical, but renders solid reasons, well put and urged, for maintaining the 'voluntary system.' We are, on the whole, very well contented with this sample of the CHURCH QUARTERLY."—Jan. 1876.

THE ENGLISH CHURCHMAN.

"Our sympathies are with the bold venture of the new CHURCH QUARTERLY, which seems, to judge from its first number, bent upon deserving success, as the next best thing—even if it be not the same thing—to commanding it. The list of contents, the note and mark of the writers—some of whose names have got abroad and are avouched by the consenting silence of their owners—and the general interest of the topics treated of, are an earnest, if not a guarantee, of a quarterly supply of the sort of pabulum for Churchmen which for some years past they have had to look for in the occasional articles of external and sometimes uncongenial organs."

THE CHURCH REVIEW.

"We have set up the old Christian Remembrancer as our standard, and are glad to say that on reading the articles 'Theodore of Mopsuestia,' 'Sacerdotalism,' and the 'Restoration of Old Paths to Dwell in,' we are beguiled into the thought that our favourite was in our hands. Gladly would we give some account of the other articles, such as 'The Arts considered as Tide Marks of History,' but perforce must content ourselves with the expression of our belief that the mantle of the Christian Remembrancer has fallen upon able shoulders."—Oct. 1875.

"This invaluable serial promises to be a current encyclopædia of scientific theology; and we cannot do better than advise the younger clergy not only to read, but to take it as a guide—we do not say an authority—in their continued studies. It will not only keep them abreast of the religious questions of the day, but enable them to discover points of inquiry for themselves, and indicate the quarters in which they may successfully search for materials with which to build up their own independent opinions. It promises to become an important factor in clerical education—the education which succeeds holy orders—which our elder readers amongst the clergy will unite with us in assuring their juniors is of vital importance to the Church."—Nov. 1877.

JOHN BULL.

"The CHURCH QUARTERLY REVIEW is always welcome, and its staunch advocacy of sound principles on the great questions of the day is of no little value. The current number is full of papers of varied interest and importance."—Jan. 1878.
